Can you afford to ignore the brand that has become more popular than Coca-Cola*?

Google even went to the trouble to offer their services to you in Afrikaans, Sotho, Zulu and Xhosa! It has totally dwarfed the old methods of getting information!!!

How do you tap into this phenomenon? How can you make it work for your business? How can you be found on Google?

Enquire today and take your business to new heights!

Features of the Kwikwap system

- ✓ A Website that is displayed on three different platforms namely traditional web, older generation cell phones and modern devices such as PDA's and Windows mobile phones.
- ✓ An innovative communications system that informs your customers of events, announcements, specials and newsletters. This system allows you to send free emails or SMS's (25c each) with a direct link to the applicable page of your website.
- ✓ A mailing list management system that enables you to create many different groups of recipients so that you can send information to selected groups.
- ✓ A very user-friendly management portal where you can quickly and easily update your website, newsletters or events calendar and even customize your site with various available templates.
- ✓ We ensure that you will be found by search engines such as Google.
- ✓ The main phone number on the site is a telephonic hyperlink which automatically dials when clicked (only applicable when accessed from a cell phone).
- ✓ You can have a FAQ (frequently asked questions) section, links, specials, announcements and a photo gallery.
- ✓ A Client can sell advertising space on his website or use this functionality to promote related businesses.
- ✓ You can upload documents and brochures (such as flyers, application forms and price lists) onto the site which basically turns a cell phone into a mobile office.
- ✓ The price is right at only R59+VAT per month with very low set-up fees
- ✓ Many interactive add-on modules such as an online shop, business applications, online forms and youtube videos!
